

Rev. Ulas N. Broady

FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE: “He hath showed thee, O man, what is good and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?”
Micah 6:8

MINISTERIAL GIFTS: “Visiting sick people and talking to them; encouraging people to do right by living a decent life; and having a passion for talking to people, especially older people because God has blessed me to do a lot for people.”

EDUCATION: Rev. Broady attended the Shenandoah and Washington Bible Colleges and has continuously attended related seminars, workshops, conferences, and meetings—both locally and nationally.

Rev. Broady has been a member of High Street Baptist Church for more than sixty years, where he continues to participate in several ministries and activities. He served as a Deacon of High Street for twenty-five years, twelve of which he was chairman of the Board. He was the Pastor of Lapsleys Run Baptist Church for thirty three years and retired in 2015. In March of 2002, Rev. Broady received an Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree from Richmond Virginia Seminary.
